ROARING 20's REVUE

Chairman: Dennis P. Donovan Director: Walter Doherty

MARCH 2-3-4

Rehearsals begin Sunday, January 21, 1962, at 700 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, Post 39, 370 Massachusetts Ave., Arlington 74, Mass.

Talent Desired — 110 Young Men and Women Between the Ages of 18 and 80.

Please note that rehearsals will be held on Thursday and Sunday evenings commencing January 21st and continuing until opening night.

Arlington goalie Joe Allosio chalked up his fourth shutout in seven appearances as Arlington high school nipped stubborn Somerville, 2-0, to keep pace with front running Newton and Cambridge Latin in the top section of the G.B.I. loop Saturday afternoon.

The local club scored in the first and third periods; both markers were of the unassisted variety.

At 7:27 of the opening stanza Bob Fredo hit the drapes with a slap shot while the second and clinching goal was off the stick of Co-Capt. Pete Lax at 3:54 of the final canto.

ARLINGTON (2) - Allosio, g. Keirstead, ld, Carr, rd, Lax, c, Fredo, lw, O'Brien, rw, SPARES-- Gassell, Clarke, DeCaprio, Fraser.

Double Action At Boston Arena

Gordie Clark of Arlington is frustrated at the goal mouth as Somerville goalie stops him and the puck during action Saturday. Arlington blanked Somerville for second consecutive time, 2-0 at Arena Saturday.

St. Agnes Intra-Murals St. Agnes In Tie

It may have been chilly on January 10 but it was hot on the ice as the Canadiens and Maple Leafs met as the first half of the Intra-Mural hockey games on the M.D.C. Rink on route 2.

The Canadiens had this game well in hand all the way. Frank Callahan was their spark plug scoring three of the four goals. Bob Curry scored the other goal for the Canadiens. The Rangers really put on the pressure half way through the third period and Bob Bartholomew scored their only goal in the closing minutes.

The second game saw the Maple Leafs get off to a big lead and hang on to survive as the Bruins pulled every trick in the book. Powers, and Heavern opened the scoring for the Leafs in the first period. With Cucchiara, Powers and Grannan scoring again for the Leafs in the second period, John Cummings scored for the Bruins in the second. With the score 5-1 going in the third period the Bruins really dominated the play. But fine goaltending by Eddie Walsh held them to only two additional goals by O'Connell and DePari. Bob Heavern scored again in the third period for the Leafs making the final score Leafs 6 Bruins 3.

After much deliberation the coaches of the Intra-Mural Hockey League picked their players for the All-Star Team. They will play the St. Agnes JV's on Sunday February 4 at 1:30 in the afternoon at the Boston Skating Club. The names of those chosen will be announced next week in this newspaper.

Are We Prepared?

Is this country prepared to cope with a widespread medical problem, such as an epidemic?

The answer is no, according to the New March of Dimes, which warns that any kind of an epidemic - polio, influenza, of the 1918 type or any other infectious disease - could be disastrous because of an acute shortage of health manpower.

There are nearly 260 million possible demands for health service and only two million qualified people to meet them.

For every 100,000 population in the United States, there are only 133 doctors and 268 registered nurses.

The National Foundation has studied this problem for some years, and in 1959 instituted the Health Scholarship program to increase the total number of trained medical personnel.

More than 800 incipient physicians, nurses, physical therapists, occupational therapists and medical social workers are in school with financial assistance from the New March of Dimes.

By the time the first group graduates in the Spring of 1963, an additional 1,000 Health Scholarship winners are expected to be in school.

Donations to the New March of Dimes represent an investment in safe health care through the assistance of preparing students for the medical field.

New Idea For Melody Showcase

The Annual "Melody Showcase" of the Arlington Academy of Music will be held at high school auditorium, Jan. 19, at 8 p.m.

This year talented young musicians of the Academy will introduce a new idea of youth musical presentation. The Academy is offering several units of television length and character, "a show rather than a recital."

The evening's entertainment will include singing, playing comedy, artistic soloists and unusual musical combinations.

Letters To The Editor

To The Editor:

With the start of the New Year, may I on behalf of the 365 Veterans' Agents and Service Officers in the various cities and towns in Massachusetts, thank you and your newspaper for the consideration extended to veterans and their dependents of your community during the past year.

In the trying days ahead, the role of the war veteran is made that much more vivid, and the sacrifices they made in the past are focused in their mind.

Your friendship for the veteran and his dependent, is evidenced by the excellent cooperation that you have shown, in disseminating all information concerning them, and is greatly appreciated.

May we wish you and your employees the best for the forthcoming year.

Sincerely,
Charles N. Collatos
Commissioner

Secretaries

The Arlington Association of Educational Secretaries held their winter meeting Jan. 8th at the Arlington High School.

Mrs. Edna Reid, President, presided at the business meeting, after which, Miss Ruth M. Crowley of Lynn Public Schools gave a talk on the Professional Standards Program. She explained how the members of the Arlington group could go about qualifying for a Professional Secretary's Certificate. An interesting question and answer period followed.

Refreshments were served by the Hospitality Chairman, Mrs. Margaret Kelleher, and her committee.

To The Editor

John W. Bullock is among those seeking the office of Selectman in the March election.

Perhaps all the town meeting members including myself owe Mr. Bullock our thanks.

Last summer the possibility existed that EVERY TOWN MEETING MEMBER WOULD HAVE TO RUN IN THE MARCH 1962 ELECTION IF THEY WISHED TO SERVE IN THE TOWN MEETING.

A plan had been put before the Selectman which would have redrawn Arlington's precinct boundary lines so that every town meeting member would have to run for re-election. And if a town meeting member found himself redistricted out of his former precinct he would not have been able to run as a candidate for re-election.

Made aware of this redistricting plan, Bullock immediately initiated a petition against this proposal. Quietly, he mobilized a small group of citizens who went from door to door collecting several hundred signatures on a petition opposing the plan on the basis that it would inconvenience many hundreds of voters and, in addition, would have denied the precincts of many able Town Meeting Members.

As a result of Bullock's alert action, it is my belief that the Board of Selectmen gave more extensive consideration to the redistricting plan than they otherwise would have done.

The redistricting plan was finally postponed indefinitely.

Speaking for myself and as a Town Meeting Member, John Bullock seems to me to be the type of person we need more of in town government - the kind of person who works quietly and effectively to get things done.

I hope other Town Meeting Members will join me in supporting John Bullock for Selectman on March 5th.

Sincerely,
Frederick J. Bloodworth

Woman's Club

"Politics is your Business" will be discussed by Robert R. Brunn, American News Editor of the Christian Science Monitor at the meeting of the Arlington Woman's Club, Jan. 25.

At the same meeting John Howell, Boys State Representative, will talk about "Accent on Youth" and Marcia Gott, Girls' State Representative will discuss the girls side.

Peirce PTA

"When our Children Ask About God" will be the subject for discussion at the Jan. 18 meeting of the Peirce P.T.A.

Guest speakers will include: Rev. James Daniels of the Methodist Church, Arlington; Rev. Edward A. Hoffer, C.S.P. of St. Ann's Church, Boston and Rabbi Herbert Rosenblum of Temple Emunah, Lexington.

To the Editor

As an avid Joe Ward supporter, I noticed with great interest that his campaign coordinator in Arlington last year, Charles Kent is seeking promotion from the School Committee to Selectman.

I know Kent must have worked hard although unsuccessfully for Ward, who I believe would have been a great Governor, at least a lot better than the present incumbent, Mr. Volpe.

Ward is a real Democrat; and if one can believe the Boston papers, he will be a candidate for Attorney General. I hope Charlie Kent will continue his support of Joe Ward whether or not he is personally successful in his own fight.

I want Massachusetts to go for WARD and achieve real progress, we will support the party of Joe Ward and Charlie Kent, the Democratic party.

Joe Ward for A.G.

Sincerely,
Jeremiah F. O'Shea

Arlington 74, Mass.

To Present Leo Litwin

"An Evening With Leo Litwin", a program with more than ordinary interest to those who love good music will be presented Friday evening, March 2 by the Arlington Kiwanis Club in Lowe Auditorium, Arlington High School.

Arlington's own Leo Litwin, best known as featured pianist of the Boston Symphony "Pops" Orchestra will be soloist of the evening. As further attractions, Lisa Ann Goldman, nine-year-old pianist and Rosalie Hoffman, fifteen-year-old blind pianist, will perform.

This is a first in Arlington music, and with the fine acoustics in Lowe Auditorium should combine to make this a most rewarding evening.

Tickets will be available next week from all Kiwanis

Talk Around Town

At least 35 per cent of all pedestrian deaths in cities took place when the victim was crossing the street between intersections....Cerebral Palsy strikes every 53 minutes....Mrs. James Moran and Mrs. Frank Igo local ticket chairmen for Philomathia Club Luncheon-Fashion Show....Ken Heffler assigned to S.S. Pioneer Minx, modern cargo vessel operated by U.S. Lines Co....Whose face is red for having blasted out Arlington goalie Joe Allosso recently in another paper; five goals in seven games is an excellent average; also four shutouts.

Bob Doherty now a cadet major in AFOTC at Tufts... Ann's Doughnut Shop now open in Brattle St. area of Arlington....Arlington Academy of Music will hold its "Melody Showcase" Wednesday night at 8 p.m....Notice how many clubs are holding discussions relative to youth's problems... Ken Garrity, Dennis Nolan, and Frank Kasparian are among those seeking possible appointment to U.S. Service Academies for 1962....Aliens in this area are responding well to address report requirements.

Harry Lassiter has joined Dewey and Almy as an engineer....Justin Comeau to attend health symposium at Boston Gas Company Auditorium....

Top picks of the week -- Pierce P.T.A. meeting tonight with clergy of three faiths; Stratton school building committee meeting tonight at Industrial Art school; St. Agnes Holy Name meeting Sunday morning with "Ted" Kennedy as speaker.

Look for the grand opening of another Swanson's Bakery completely modern, soon, at 918 Mass. Ave., corner of Mass. Ave. and Highland Ave., opposite Stop and Shop.

Appointed

Mary T. Stamm (D), 337 Summer St., has been appointed as a substitute election officer in Precinct 11B.

NEUTRAL OBSERVER

A very quiet pre-election campaign is now underway. Three have officially signed their names in the book at the Clerk's office as Selectmen candidates, Barnstead, Kent and Rawson are known to be laying the groundwork for their campaign, but have not signed their names in the Clerk's book.

Cammarata, the first announced candidate, Bullock, and Campbell have written in their names as candidates. If the field is kept as narrow as this, and only a week and a half remains before papers are filed with the Registrars, then the "Dems" have an excellent chance to get another man back on the Board. However, a great deal can happen in 10 or 11 days.

Incumbent Walter Cooledge is the first candidate to have all his papers certified, his opposition to date is Robert Walsh. This could be a two-man race, although the rumor that Marcellino might run for this spot is still strong. However, it still looks like a two-man race.

Incumbents Morine, Brown and Dally, the team of three years back have all written their names in the Clerk's book as candidates, but not as a team.

Barry and McCann also have let it be known via the clerk's book that they are candidates. The Observer is looking for a third candidate for a team possibly Joe Daley.

The Observer while driving around in his 1912 Maxwell has been unable to chase down another possible candidate, who always turns up the next street when he sees us coming.

The other contest is for Moderator. Bob Porteus has his name in the book. As yet, incumbent Larry Corcoran has said nothing officially.

From the Observer's grapevine we can pluck the following tidbit.

John Reardon, well-known locally, and a capable man we hear, is being urged by friends to seek the man with the gavel position at Town Meeting.

And so much for politics-- a Newland Rd. resident came up with a big question for the Selectmen this week. Rats in his cellar so he claims, blames the entire matter onto the sanitary fill area. The question - Can an article be inserted in the Warrant to close the sanitary fill area?

Surveyors have been busy in the 20-acre section off Route 2. One plot has been staked out near Birch St. Nothing definite yet, but Star Market could be thinking of something in the not-too-distant future.

Permission Granted

The Board of Selectmen has granted permission to the Boston Edison Co. and the New England Tel. and Tel. Co. for joint or identical locations for poles upon, along and across Park St., southeasterly side, approximately 487 feet southwest of Exeter St. (one pole) One existing JO pole is to be removed.

Also granted was permission for conduits and manholes to be located under Mass. Ave., northwesterly from a point approximately 30 feet northwest of Mystic St., a distance of about 15 feet (manhole); Mass Ave., northwesterly from a point approximately 20 feet northwest of Mystic St., a distance of about 10 feet (conduit).

Unusual Banks Displayed At Tea Panel To Discuss

A special exhibit of old-time mechanical banks, part of a large collection owned by Ernest Hesseltine of Belmont, proved of unusual interest to some 75 members of the Arlington Historical Society who attended the annual New Year's Day tea at the Jason Russell House.

Among the banks shown were one in which the insertion of a coin caused a mule to kick a seated boy off a stump, another whereby a penny caused two boys to play leapfrog, and a third which made a man stand on his head in a woodshed door. A widely remembered bank was in the form of a colored boy who popped a penny placed in his hand into his mouth. Also causing considerable comment was an adult bird which, when receiving a coin in its beak, bent forward and fed two baby birds. These were but a few of about fifty banks which were displayed and discussed by their owner and Mrs. Hesseltine, former residents of Arlington and members of the Historical Society.

The tea was arranged by Miss Edith Winn, assisted by Mrs. Chester R. Whitman, Miss Eva M. Smith, Mrs. Marion B. Stewart and Mrs. Lettice Llewellyn. Pourers were Mrs. Laurence L. Barber, Mrs. Wathen B. Henderson and Miss Ruth Sampson, who presided at a table appropriately decorated for the holiday season.

TB answer week is just around the corner. The coming weekend January 19, 20 and 21 have been reserved for youth answer the call to eliminate tuberculosis. Send your contribution to TB Christmas Seals, Post Office Box, 265, in Woburn.

Children's Emotions

The full staff of psychological and social workers of the Arlington Public Schools will compose a panel for the discussion of "Your Children's Emotions and the School" at a meeting to be held Jan. 24 at 8 p.m. at the Little Theatre at the high school.

Dr. Donald Gair, psychiatrist and instructor at Harvard Medical School will moderate; included on the panel will be Dr. Hella Moller, senior school psychologist; Howard Daniels, school psychologist. Mrs. Evelyn Perlman, school psychologist; Daniel Wolf, school social worker; and Mrs. Ruth Khuralla, social work supervisor at Simmons college.

The C.A.R.

The Jason Russell Society, Children of the American Revolution, held a Christmas meeting of their Senior Society President, Mrs. J. Edward Vivian, 35 Hutchinson Rd. a week ago.

The following persons were present: John, David, and Ann Vivian, Estelle Knud, and Peter Maartmann-Moe, Arthur and Richard Guild, Alison and Sharon Trott, Karl and Karen Rood, Karen Friis, Cynthia Clark, Linda Dolan, Bradley Young, Leslie Seaton, Linda Heberling, and Charles Dewing. Honored guests were the Massachusetts Sr. State President, C.A.R., Mrs. R. Franklin Swan, and her daughter, Elizabeth Swan, who is State President, as well as a member of Jason Russell Society, and Michael Kelley, the Society President of John Goddard Society.

A short program on Tamassee School was given by nine members. This is one of the Mountain Schools which the C.A.R. help support.

Special entertainment was provided by four members of the Linn Village Drum Band under the direction of Mr. Ralph Eames of Wakefield, Mass. The drummers wore colorful Revolutionary period costumes. Their drums were made by hand, and designed exactly like those used at the time of the Revolutionary War. Following the meeting a social period was held with refreshments, exchange of gifts, dancing for the teen-agers, and games and a short program on Conservation for the younger members.

Ten members from the Jason Russell Society attended a State C.A.R. meeting on the afternoon of Dec. 27th at the College Club in Boston to honor their National President, Elizabeth Bennett. That evening fifty friends and C.A.R. members attended the Ice Capades in a group with their National President.

Fitness For Future

Mrs. Jaqueline D. Vaughn, Director of Educational Services for the Red Cross will discuss "Fitness for the Future" at the Annual Meeting of the A. V. N. A., Jan. 26, at 2 p.m. at the Robbins Junior Library Hall.

During recent years, and more particularly in recent months the business sections in the Town of Arlington have undergone drastic changes.

Many stores have closed their doors at one location and opened in renovated, more modern quarters in another section of Town.

As a person recently said, East Arlington and Arlington

Heights are closer together these days because of the re-locating of stores from one end of Town to the other.

One of the most "renovating" (If such a word may be used) sections of the community is in the block of stores on Mass. Ave. across from the Brattle St. intersection.

Varied types of businesses have gone into this section in a matter of two or three years. Those who have been away from Arlington over a period of time would never recognize this section now.

Several of these stores are mentioned in advertisements on this page.

Howard Collins, proprietor of Collins Typewriter Service has been located in the area since August of 1959; Berg Keshian's Supermarket moved into its new home, officially in May of 1960; Phil Sweeney's Insurance has been at its present address since December of 1960; Eddie and Danny have been open at the House of Dorelle for less than a year; and this week marks the opening of Ann's Doughnut Shop. In addition Chicken Delight has been in the same sections since last summer.

Certainly with these diversified types of substantial businesses now established and moving into this area the business future in this section and throughout the Town is heading in the right direction.

Deposits Up At

National Bank

Deposits at the Arlington National Bank were up from $9,-465,510 at the end of 1960 to $10,028,000 at the close of 1961. Karl Weiss, president of the bank told stockholders at the annual meeting held at banking headquarters, Jan. 9.

Interest amounting to $112,-509 was credited to the accounts of savings depositors at the bank during the year.

Elected to office at the annual meeting were:

Directors Louis T. Boucher, Edward D. Buckley, Francis A. Coughlin, William F. Fitzmaurice, Joseph P. Greeley, William B. Houser, John Mirak, Henry J. Shea, Lloyd I. Small Jr., Herbert D. Stevens and Karl E. Weiss.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Martinuzzi, Michigan, announce the birth of their fourth child, third son, Neil, Dec. 31. Mrs. Martinuzzi is the former Joan Kel-

No, He's Not Taking A Nap

Somerville net-minder Vin Ciampa might appear to be taking a nap in front of Somerville cage during action in G.B.J. tilt with Arlington Saturday, but he is making save. His efforts were in vain, however, as Arlington came off with a 2-0 shutout victory.

A Year Round Flower Show

Have you ever seen a year-round flower show? Well, it's now available to you at the newly enlarged Lexington Gardens which will open Jan. 25. Located at 93 Hancock st., Lexington, this Garden area takes at least two or three trips around to see completely. According to the Millicans, owners of this modern Garden Center, "If you can't get it here, it's not worth having." No effort has been spared to make this one of the finest and most beautiful garden centers on the Eastern Seaboard. Featured are a tropical area, a 30 foot waterfall and waterwheel; an African Violet Fair; and "Cactus Junction" complete with trains - an added attraction for the children. A tremendous display of plants of all types. Says Mr. Millican, "This we feel sure will interest the kids as well as the grown-ups."

Board's Approval- The Selectmen have gone along with a request of the Valeri Construction Co., Udine St., to purchase tax possession land on Sylvia St., providing the Town of Lexington approves the same for the sections of the same land which are in that community. The offered purchase price is $400.

Fidelity House Notes

Two close games were played in the Fidelity House 5th and 6th grade league on Monday of last week. Boston College avenged an earlier defeat by Holy Cross and tightened its hold on first place. Final score: B.C. 5 Holy Cross 4. Charlie Carella and John Woods scored two points apiece for the winners. In the other game Harvard moved into a three way tie for second place by defeating Army 6 to 2. Paul Zermani and Jim Burke did all the scoring for Harvard.

League standings are:

Boston College	4	1
Army	2	3
Holy Cross	2	3
Harvard	2	3

On Wednesday of last week, in the Fidelity House 7th and 8th grade basketball league, the Knicks remained undefeated by edging the Hawks, 21 to 14. The Knicks led by only two points (14-12) at the end of the 3rd period, before three quick baskets by Brian Tidliah sewed it up in the 4th period. The Hawks might well have been victorious had they not incurred a record 14 personal fouls in the games.

In the second game the Royals pushed the Celtics to a second place tie by defeating them 21 to 11. Gerry Indrisano, Dick O'Keefe, Ralph Abbott and Dick Amico shared scoring honors for the Royals, who have now won two straight.

League standings are now:

	W	L
Knicks	5	0
Royals	3	2
Celtics	2	3
Hawks	0	5

The St. Agnes Cadets played a tough Immaculate Conception of Malden team, Jan. 11. Immaculate Conception led all the way and finished with a 45-21 score. The Cadets played only a fair first half but improved in the second half, scoring twelve points to Immaculate Conception's sixteen. Pete Toland was high scorer for St. Agnes with seven points. Ron Pike had five.

Black Hawks 2 Maple Leafs 1: A clutch goal by Bill Dwyer in the closing seconds of the game enabled the Hawks to nip the Leafs and remain on top of the league. Bill McCaffrey gave the Leafs an early lead when he stole the puck off a Hawk stick at the blue line and moved in close to score. Brendan Donovan received an assist. Bill Shea evened things when he took a neat pass from Tom Fitzgerald moved in close and blasted a high shot into the upper corner. Maroons 3 Canadiens 0: The rugged Maroons were too strong for the defending champs as they rolled to a 3-0 shut out. Roger DeStephano started the Maroons on their way when he picked up a loose puck inside the Canadiens blue line and fought his way into a scoring position. Brian Tidliah scored the second goal on a good corner shot after taking a pass from DeStephano at center ice. Jim Largenton racked up the final goal when he 'camped in front of the Canadiens net and took a pass from DeStephano at the side boards. Curley Ellos was classy in the Maroons net and thwarted several dangerous Canadian attacks. Bruins 1 Rangers 0: The Bruins edged the Rangers 1-0 on an early goal by Ken Diskin. He took a corner pass out from Bob Bartholomew and drove a whistler into the far corner. Great goal tending by Burke in the Bruins' net stopped several dangerous attacks by the Rangers.

Summer Trip

To Scout Ranch

To Be Discussed

Full particulars of a summer expedition to Philmont Scout Ranch, Cimarron, New Mexico, open to Scouts and Explorers of Minuteman Council will be presented to boys, their leaders and parents from Arlington, Belmont, Watertown, Waltham, Lexington, Concord, Bedford, Carlisle and Lincoln, comprising Districts 1, 2, and 3, at a special Philmont meeting at the Park Ave. Congregational Church, Arlington, at eight o'clock Monday evening, January 29.

reservations are now being taken for the expedition to Philmont next July under the leadership of Horace E. Homer, of Arlington. Registration is limited to 33 boys, Mr. Homer, who entered Scouting as a boy, has been active ever since, and holds the Silver Beaver Award from the National Council for "outstanding service to boyhood". He is presently serving as Scoutmaster of an Arlington Troop.

Philmont Scout Ranch is the 127,000 acre camping area of the Boy Scouts of America for "high adventure" camping and outdoor experiences for Scouts and Explorers from any part of the country. On the edge of the plains country near the "covered wagon trail", the Ranch itself is forested with mountains 11,000 feet in altitude. Rich in historical interest as well as natural resources, there is opportunity to find pre-historic Indian relics in an archeological "dig", pan for gold in the creeks, visit Kit Carson's home, as well as for mountain climbing, horseback riding, burro packing, and hike the trails. During the twelve day stay at the Ranch, the party will plan and plot its own program to include its primary interests.

Full details of the trip-dates, itinerary, transportation and stop-over arrangements, costs, and so on - will be presented at the January 29 meeting, with motion pictures of the ranch and activities, and descriptions by Scouts and leaders who have already enjoyed the Philmont adventure.

The Community Calendar

"The Community Calendar, drawn up this fall by the Robbins Library, has already been useful in supplying information," said Miss Judith E. Stromdahl, Librarian. "Arlington organizations may be able to avoid serious conflicts if they use it to check their plans for timing events, and we especially recommend this procedure now for groups planning programs of wide interest to be held in the spring. The calendar has been made up with the assistance of about seventy-five local associations whose officers filled in questionnaires. Any Arlington organization which may not have received one is invited to request a copy."

In addition to the calendar, the Robbins Library maintains a file of Club Officers. This and the Community Calendar may be consulted by a visit or telephone call to the Robbins Library at 700 Massachusetts Avenue. Telephone MI-3-0026.

With a page for each day, the calendar lists information on events expected to attract seventy-five or more people and about which the Library has received information. Listings give names of groups, places, times of meetings, numbers of persons expected and notations as to whether or not the meetings are open to the public. As additional events are planned by groups it is hoped they will notify the Library.

past the Board has limited its school collections per year to three-Red Cross, Polio and UNICEF.

Principal Ottoson, John Riordan and Fred Tobin of the Junior High School West explained the Physical Fitness Club now in operation at that school.

Letters were read from youngsters in the Club and parents of youngsters praising the club itself.

In order to belong to the organization, prospective members are screened by present members.

Callisthenics, close order drill, and a weight training course are included in the club's operation.

The Board voted unanimously against House Bill 513 and so informed the Committee on Education, via telegram this week.

The Bill would limit school budget increases to less than five per cent, unless so voted by two-thirds vote of Town Meeting.

Roens would ask that the contractor agree in writing to complete all the minor jobs, still not completed next summer.

The remainder of the work would not be paid for until completed according to this request.

The major work on the building is completed according to Roens.

Committeeman Kent told members that there are several jobs on the punch list still to be completed.

Carl Allen asked why these small jobs couldn't be completed before February.

Kent stated that these jobs shouldn't take more than two weeks to finish.

A motion was made to allow Dr. Roens to take such action.

However, School Committeeman Arthur Coughlin, opposed going into any uncompleted school. He said that the Town is already saddled with one such building (Dallin School).

Final payment has not been for the construction of this building.

Coughlin asked that the motion be tabled and then asked that the School Committee inform the School Building Committee of its intention to attend the meeting Jan. 18; he also stated that the School Committee would like to enter into discussion with such Building Committee.

Committeeman Kent stated that contractors hadn't kept faith because they had promised work would be done at such and such a time, and when the time came the work was not completed. He also stated that such was recorded in meeting minutes.

Kent further added that although construction of the building was behind, basically the construction work itself was good.

Dividend Up

The Directors of the Arlington Co-operative Bank this week voted to pay a regular quarterly dividend on all of its savings accounts at the rate of 4% per annum.

This represents an increase of 1/4% per annum on the savings share accounts which will place that savings program on the same basis as the serial share and paid-up share accounts which were previously on a 4% basis.

Ken further added that although construction of the building was behind, basically the construction work itself was good.

Make Big Contribution To Armed Forces

Do You Know?

The late Sir Henry Pellatt was a pioneer in New World business — a man of baronial moods and an ardent Royalist, who spent $3,000,000 to build a castle in the heart of the City of Toronto to entertain Royalty that never came.

Sir Henry's castle — Casa Loma — is now one of the stellar tourist attractions of the great Canadian city which is the gateway to the vast vacationland of Ontario Province.

When he traveled, he usually leased either a private car or even a private train from the Canadian National Railways.

Sir Henry Pellatt has been described as a man who would never order a hamburger sandwich when in a hurry—he'd probably buy the restaurant. He acted like a Diamond Jim Brady with a billion dollars to spend.

Consequently, when he wanted a modest place to lay his head, he took a convenient hilltop which he happened to own in Toronto, sent to Scotland for a small army of stone masons, and kept them at work a year on the garden wall alone. Sir Henry's Casa Loma had turrets 300 feet above the street level, which is as high as a thirty-story skyscraper.

All his bathtubs had golden faucets; his kitchen was big enough to prepare sufficient food for one time to feed a regiment; the library could accommodate 100,000 books — and from the basement, a tunnel, wide enough to drive a car through, went under the street 600 feet to the stables where every horse had a Spanish-mahogany stall with bronze fittings.

Sir Henry didn't forget to have a swimming pool built in his castle along with a bowling alley, billiard rooms, a two-hundred foot rifle range and a secret staircase from the library to the roomed in the subject of peace.

School Lunch Week Observed

Do your children eat better than you do? The answer could well be "yes" if they are taking advantage of the hot lunch program at school. At least they are eating as well for less.

This is School Lunch Week in Massachusetts, by proclamation of Gov. John Volpe, and the purpose of the occasion is to emphasize the part that the school lunch arrangements are playing in President Kennedy's physical fitness program for youth across the nation.

In Arlington the officers of the P.T.A. are visiting Junior High East today to watch the lunch system in operation and are themselves having lunch at the school at their own expense.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edward Walden 38 Windmill Lane, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Judythe Daria Walden, to David William Khoury, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest K. Khoury, Sr. Bangor, Maine.

Miss Walden is a senior at Wellesley College where she is majoring in English.

Her fiancé was graduated from the University of Maine in 1959. He is now a third-year student at the Tufts University School of Medicine.

The couple plan to be married in the early autumn.

Engaged

May has been set for the date of the wedding of Miss Isabella Margaret Gandarillas, daughter of Mrs. Isabella Gandarillas and the late Mr. Manuel Gandarillas, 404 Compton ave., Perth Amboy, N.J., to Mr. Peter Reisz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar P. Reisz, 63 Summit st., Arlington.

Miss Gandarillas was graduated from Perth Amboy high school and the Washington School for Secretaries, Newark, N.J. She is attending Rutgers U., New Brunswick, N.J., and is employed as a secretary for the Inspector of Naval Material, Mount Airy, N.C.

Mr. Reisz was graduated from Boston Latin School and received his B.S. in Electrical Engineering at Northeastern U. He is now attending Northeastern U. evenings seeking his Master's degree. He was assigned to the U.S. Signal Corps as a Microwave Instructor at Fort Monmouth, N.J. until June of last year, and is currently employed as an electronic design engineer at Sanders Associates, Nashua, N.H.

Graduated

Second Lt. Brian S. Kelly, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Kelly, 296 Summer st., was graduated from the signal officer orientation course at the Army Signal Training Center, Fort Gordon, Ga., Dec. 15.

pense. At Junior High West, because of a conflict in schedule, it is planned to have a coffee hour for parents later, in March, at which Miss Florence Forsythe, head of the home economics department will speak on requirements for school lunches, and John Degnan, vice-principal of the school, will discuss the mechanics of supplying the lunches. At the High School, special posters are on display all this week.

Many parents do not realize what their children get for lunch at school. On Tuesday of this week, for example, the children had a choice of baked chicken with cranberry sauce, green peas, mashed potato and bread or an egg salad roll with tomato salad and potato chips. With lunch went a half pint of milk and a dish of cherry cobbler for dessert. Could you do as well at home for 25 cents a meal?

Always there is a choice of two main dishes in the Arlington school cafeterias, with the additional choice of soup, salad and sandwiches for those who prefer them on any given day. These are not part of the regular school lunch.

Lest you wonder how such meals can be served for 25 cents, it should be pointed out that the cafeterias are run on a non-profit basis, and in addition the town is subsidized to the extent of nine cents per meal served by the state and federal governments, and in addition the schools are able to obtain surplus foods from the government for little or no expense. In Arlington about 2000 hot meals are served daily.

Governor Volpe signs School Lunch Week proclamation

Watching, left to right, are Owen B. Kiernan, Commissioner of Education; Mrs. Gladys Burbank, Gloucester Supervisor, chairman of school lunch week; Mrs. Dorothy Calahan, Milton Supervisor, president of Mass. School Food Service Assn.; and John C. Stalker, Director of the office of school lunch programs.

UNICEF Total Reaches $1,174

A total of $1,174.82 was received in the Arlington 1961 UNICEF Drive according to information released this week by Mrs. Howard C. Haas, Chairman of the Arlington Committee for UNICEF. In her statement which follows, Mrs. Haas thanks all who participated in the drive. She also expresses her satisfaction in the educational values and the generous response to this project for a cause which has received the support of great religious bodies and is helping to combat disease, ignorance and hunger threatening vast numbers of children and their families in many parts of the world.

"It is a pleasure," Mrs. Haas said, "to announce that $1,174.82 was received in the 1961 Arlington UNICEF drive. I am also happy to thank the members of the 1961 Committee for UNICEF, The Robbins Library, the Arlington School Department, private and church schools, principals, teachers, children, the many parents who helped, and all others who participated. Not only were their donations and services a practical demonstration of good will but afforded an important means of educating us concerning great areas of human need."
